IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO.2437 OF 2007

Vision Publications and Exhibitors and others Petitioners versus

P.S.Communications Respondent

Mr.A.A.Kumbhakoni, Associate Advocate General with A.M.Kulkarni for petitioners.

Mr.A.B.Borkar for respondent.

CORAM : A.S.OKA, J.

DATE : 20th April 2007

PC :

1. Learned counsel appearing for the parties have filed Minutes of Order duly signed by the advocates on record. The Minutes of Order are taken on record and marked "X" for identification. Learned counsel for the parties state that writ petition may be disposed of in terms of minutes of order.

2. I have perused the minutes of order. I find that there may be some difficulty in implementing the direction suggested in clause no.3 of the minutes of order. I am informed that the application for temporary injunction is fixed for hearing tomorrow. The suit is pending in the Court of learned District Judge-II, Kolhapur. It is pointed out to me that the learned Judge is on leave and some other learned District Judge is holding the charge of the said Court. It is true that the application for temporary injunction will have to be heard and disposed of immediately. The learned counsel for the parties agree that if for some reasons the arguments are not concluded before the Court closes for Summer Vacation, the learned Judge can take up the matter for hearing in vacation and decide the same in vacation.

3. Hence, writ petition is disposed of in terms of minutes of order except clause no.3 provided therein.

4. The learned Trial Judge will decide the application for temporary injunction as expeditiously as possible and in any event on or before 4th June 2007. It will be open for the learned Judge to hear and decide the application during the Summer Vacation. It is obvious that the parties will not seek adjournments on any unreasonable grounds and will co-operate with the learned Trial Judge for disposal of the application.

5. Parties and all concerned to act on an ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Registry of this Court.
